THE MAN WHO WAITED.

Fortune Drops in the Lap of a Lazy New Yorker. Chiengo Herald: "Speaking of luck and ill-luck," said the baid-headed moralist. I want to give you another evidence of the disjointedness of the world. "About a year ago there was a chap hanging about my office on the serried edge of poverty. He was an elegant fellow—a man of tine attainments, from a spiendid New York family—fat, fair, uxurious, but the laziest man that ever "He was actually so lazy that he wouldn't keep the flies off his nose. Yet people loved him because he was so goodatured, and when, as he did at times, in the most unexpected way, get a check for a few hundred from a grandmother's estate in process of lingering settlement, he would go out and buy 'Pom. Sec.' and goose livers till he and his friends all looked like blood sansages.

"Finally be drifted back east, and I expected to hear of him next as a street-car driver or something, or water-pail carries on a target excursion. But it seems dur-ing the war his father in New York owned a steamship. The ship was taken into government service, and in her first voyage was piled on the rocks by an in competent navigator. A flaw in the contract gave his father's shrewd attorneys opportunity to sue the government for the ship's value.

"The suit was brought twenty years ago. She was a vessel of perhaps 1,000 tons, but ships—even wrecked ones grow in twenty years. She is now on paper a vessel in nowise inferior to the lost Oregon. The other day news came that the Court of Claims in Washington had decided the suit in favor of the owner's estate, and fixed the damages at $365,000, which the treasury will have to

A small Waterbury lad said to a police-man the other day: 'If you see a ladder to my bedroom window to-night please don't say anything or take it down. A lot of us boys are going to sleep together to night and get an early start to see the circus come in town, and I want to get out of the house on the sly." The police man is said to have been worthy of the confidence thus placed in him.

Change of climate and water often affect the action of the bowels. One or two Brandreth's Pills taken every night are a perfect remedy in such cases, they also prevent malaria and are a protection against typhus fever, or diseases arising from bad sewerage.

Benton's Hair Grower All who are BALD, all who are becoming BALD, all who do not want to be bald, all who are troubled with DANDRUFF, or ITCHING of the scalp; should use Benton's Hair Grower. Eight v Per Cent of those using it have grown hair. It never fails to stop the hair from falling. Through sickness and fevers the hair sometimes tails off in a short time, and although the person may have remained baid for years, if you use Benton's Hair Grower according to directions you are sure of a growth of hair. In hundreds of cases we have produced a good growth of Hair on those who have been baid and glazed for years we have fully substantiated the following facts:

We grow Hair in 90 cases out of 100, no matter how long baid.

Unlike other preparations, it contains no ITCHING of the scalp; should use Benton'
